If you are looking for a spacious affordable home in the Cheadle area, take a look at this end garden terraced house, situated close to the village and access to the motorway network. The property requires some updating and improvement, but offers size, versatility and a wonderful opportunity to personalise and add value. The accommodation includes a hall, two separate reception rooms, a contemporary fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms and a bathroom/WC combined. Other features include gas central heating, double glazing and a useful basement storage cellar. Outside there is a private rear garden that does require some work and there is a space at the front to park.
