£190,000 🛌 2 🖺 1 🚍 1

This well presented, end terraced house, would make a wonderful starter home or potential buy to let opportunity. Situated in a convenient residential location, close to local shops, public transport facilities and access to the national motorway network for commuters, the property includes an entrance vestibule, front living room, fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom/WC combined. Other features include gas central heating, double glazing and a versatile loft space with two double glazed windows. Externally, there is an enclosed rear yard and there is on street parking space to the front. With good interest expected and no onward chain, an early appointment to view is highly recommended.
